

THE A-MAZE-ING dentist's office

A dentist's office can sometimes seem like a maze! Can you find your way from the waiting room to the dentist's chair?

It takes up to eight years of school to become a dentist.

The tool used to suck the water and spit from your mouth is called a "saliva ejector."

START →

Most pirates didn't really use treasure chests.

People who live in Connecticut visit the dentist most often.¹

FINISH →

Many kids have fluoride applied at dental visits. Fluoride helps your teeth stay strong and healthy.

The first dental chair was invented in 1790 by Boston dentist Josiah Flagg.

1. Gallup-Healthways Well-Being Index survey